Basic information:

All school districts in Illinois are required to adopt an annual budget by the end of the first fiscal quarter (September) of each fiscal year and file it with ISBE, the Regional Office of Education, and other reporting agencies (i.e. auditors, bond counsel, etc.).

Prior to the adoption of the official legal budget for District 33, the Board is required to adopt the Tentative Budget and to place the Tentative Budget on public display for 30 days so community members may preview the budget in full. The Board is also required to hold a public hearing before the regularly scheduled board meeting at which the adoption of the official legal budget is on its agenda.

Background or historical information:

Revenue Assumptions for the Tentative Budget include:

- Local Revenue- Property tax revenue based on 2.9% CPI – in Dec. 2025 Levy.
- State Revenue – Estimating that new Evidence-Based Funding will remain around $80,000 as we are now in Tier 2. Categorical Grants – remain flat
- Federal Revenue – remain flat (Title, Medicaid, IDEA)

Expenditure Assumptions for the Tentative Budget include:

- Staffing – Moving a Family Liaison to local funds
- Salary & Benefits – Projection based on Union Bargaining Agreements & a projected 8% increase in Health Insurance
- Transportation – 2% Transportation Renewal
- Supplies & Materials, Purchased Services – Projected 5% increase.

Also includes the following:

- My Perspectives Literacy Materials
- Science, Social Studies, & LMS Health Pilots
- Summer 2026 Construction
- Impact Kids Afterschool Programs
- Maintenance & Food Truck Replacements
