10. FOR THE GOOD OF THE ORDER

Mr. Dave Welker, Dir of Instructional Svc thanked the district office staff for the warm welcome.

Mrs. Emily Ledbetter, LES Principal shared the summer school students felt the summer school session was fun and engaging and overall attendance to the program increased from last year. Meet the Teacher is scheduled for August 21st.

Mrs. Lisa Dickover, BES Principal reported their summer school numbers were higher from last year and students and staff had lots of fun learning. She also shared they hired quite a few new staff for upcoming year which included two teachers returning to our district who started their teaching career at WDSB. Mrs. Dickover took a moment to thank her custodial staff for all their hard work.

Mrs. Janna Norton, MES Principal reported their summer school and ESY students attended at Brockway and parents seemed very pleased overall. She is very proud of staff who were willing to provide summer services. Mrs. Norton is currently working on communication out to parents regarding the vestibule configuration and fencing.

Mr. Craig Anderson, DHS Principal said there is a lot of activity already taking place at DHS from fall athletics to Marching Band.

Mr. Rob Holveck, WMS Principal shared their summer school program was smaller than previous years but students still had a great experience. Staff have started migrating to the building and getting things ready for students.

Mrs. Norma Frost, MES Teacher is looking forward to another year.
