

Cambridge-Isanti Schools
Student Representative Report
Taylor Combel
January 2026

Student Board Report

Class of 2026 Deadlines and Important Dates

- Senior grad ads due to the yearbook by January 16th
- The first portion of the Dollars for Scholars application is due on January 30th
- The advisory on January 14th allowed for seniors to get cap and gown measurements. Seniors also had the opportunity to speak with a representative to answer any questions.

Planning for the Future

- There is an informational meeting on Thursday, January 22nd, for any upcoming juniors or seniors to attend if they are interested in enrolling in PSEO for the following school year. This meeting is vital for these students to attend, as it will answer any potential questions they may have.
- Available to students again this year was the Be a Teacher field trip hosted at the Anoka Ramsey Community College in Coon Rapids on January 9th.

Activities and Athletics

- Girls' Wrestling had a great turnout at Champlin Park on the 3rd
 - 3 students placed 1st in their class, and 3 also placed 3rd
- Gymnastics tied for 8th place out of 17 teams at the MGJA invitational in Farmington on the 3rd.
 - Both our Varsity and JV teams are currently in 1st place within our conference with a record of 2-0 on the season
- ModelUN is working diligently to prepare for its upcoming trip to Chicago next month
- Speech had its first meet on the 10th in Two Rivers
- Mock Trial had its first competition of the season against Albany
 - Congratulations to Ainsley Doom and Averee Oleary for receiving outstanding attorney awards. Another congrats to Max Godeen and Lauren Albright for receiving outstanding witness awards