

GOVERNING BOARD AGENDA ITEM
AMPHITHEATER UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 10

---

DATE OF MEETING: April 10, 2018

TITLE: Recognition of Careers through Culinary Arts Program (C-CAP) Scholars

---

BACKGROUND:

Careers through Culinary Arts Program (C-CAP) prepares students for the workplace through chef mentoring, job shadowing, work experience and job skills, and college and career advising. Through a holistic approach to culinary training, students compete for college scholarships.

The following students from Ironwood Ridge High School won college scholarships at the 2018 Career through Culinary Arts Program (C-CAP) cooking competition:

- Nick Perricone, $17,900 to the International Culinary College in New York, New York
- Mario Solorzano, $4,000 to a school of his choice and a position with the Omni Resort and Spa in Scottsdale, Arizona
- Jessica Lopez, Dairy Council of Arizona, 2nd place winner, $3,000 to a school of her choice
- Cody Hedrick, James Beard Scholarship Award $3,700 and a position with the Westin Kierland Resort and Spa in Scottsdale, Arizona
- Valentina Galaz, $2,500 to a school of her choice and an internship at FnB Restaurant in Scottsdale, Arizona

C-CAP – Culinary Advisor:
Jean Gowen

---

RECOMMENDATION:

This item is for the Governing Board's information and recognition.

---

INITIATED BY:

Tassi Call, Director of 21st Century Education

Date: April 2, 2018

Todd A. Jaeger, J.D., Superintendent