

The interview committee for the position of Executive Director of Special Education, consisting of Pam Demny, Julie Montgomery, Yvette Bradford, Jana Copeland, Shannon Baumbach, Dr. Sara Watson, Dr. Renota Rogers, and Dr. Lisa Adams interviewed four candidates for the position of Executive Director of Special Education on March 25, 2024, and selected Mrs. Angela Solis as the lone finalist for the position.

Mrs. Solis graduated from Texas State University in 2001 with a Bachelor of Arts in Biology, and a Post Bachelor's in Teaching in 2001. In 2005 she received a Master of Education in Special Education Educational Diagnostician from the University of Houston-Victoria. She received her principal certification from Lamar University in 2015.

Mrs. Solis currently serves as the Area Special Education and 504 Director for Round Rock ISD. She has also served as an 8th Grade Science Pre-AP/AP Teacher, K-5 Science and Reading Teacher, Educational Diagnostician, Lead Educational Diagnostician, and Extended School Year Principal.

Mrs. Solis is highly involved in the special education world. She serves as the treasurer (and past president) of Capital Area Educational Diagnosticians' Association (TEDA), and just recently received her National Certification in Special Education.

Mrs. Solis has been married to her husband Isaiah for 15 years. Together they have 2 cats Noah and Asher, whom they rescued from the shelter. Ms. Solis likes to draw and read in her spare time, as well as spending time outside and traveling.

Mrs. Solis is excited to assume the role of Executive Director of Special Education and is looking forward to building relationships with students, staff, families, and the community.

It is with great pleasure that the interview committee recommend Mrs. Angela Solis to the board of trustees for approval for the position of Executive Director of Special Education.
