Mike BatemanCynthia Brehmeyer*Jill Edgin*Amanda Gonzales*Alexander Ushman*Superintendent Report December 2023*Student Activities:

We had student holiday dress up days and door decorations starting the week of December 11. Student had their “Winter Fest” rewards day and afternoon on December 19. The PTO sponsored activity stations for the secondary and the elementary had classroom activities in the afternoon. On December 19 we had our elementary winter concert and PTO assisted with the decorations and treats for attendees. Skyline HS, Denny’s Automotive, and Les Schwab Tires donated holiday gifts to our students.

Facilities:

We received and had installed our new playground equipment on December 13th. This consisted of an additional set of swing sets, a new climbing toy, and a set of climbing bars. We also brought in an addition playground bark on December 18 for the new equipment. Our building permit for the new portable has been approved from the county. I have no ETA on the delivery. Upcoming. January 22, 2024 we are scheduled to have new restroom participation installed at the secondary student restrooms/locker rooms. We are also tentatively planning for the conversation to Voice over Internet Protocol (VOIP) phones on January 22, 2023. We had an issue with our kitchen dishwasher and had a Hobart Technician out 2 times to diagnose. They have ordered a part and we are waiting for delivery and install of the part.

Athletics:

Middle School Basketballs ended the week on December 20th. High School Boys and Girls basketball season is in full swing.

Personnel:

We are in process of interviewing for the leave replacement position that was open due to Mr. Rick Winters retirement. We hope to have a replacement by the first of January, 2024.

Superintendents Activities.

December 6, ESD 113 Special Education Advisory, December 14, ESD 113 Regional Superintendents meeting; ESD 113 Special Education Advisory December 20.
