Did You Know?

Central Park was the first landscaped public park in the United States: 843 acres or 6% of Manhattan's total acreage beginning at 59th Street to 110th Street.

After over 20 years of construction, St. Patrick's Cathedral first opened its doors in May 1879. St. Patrick's Cathedral is the largest decorated Gothic-style Catholic Cathedral in the United States and seats 2200 people.

The Statue of Liberty National Monument officially celebrated her 100th birthday on October 28, 1986. The Statue of Liberty has size 879 sandals that are each 25 feet long.
