Bottom of Form

Background Information:

November 4, 2025, is election day. According to the timeline set forth by the Travis County Elections office, elections must be ordered by August 18, 2025. An election order containing the prescribed information needs to be signed by the Board President and the Board Secretary before it is forwarded to the Election Officer at the Travis County Elections office.

Fiscal Implications:

The total cost of holding a bond election is estimated at under $25,000. The election order will have three propositions for a total of $384,500,000.

Administrative Recommendation:

Administration recommends that the board of trustees call for the bond election as proposed.

Motion Language:

I move that the Manor ISD Board of Trustees call for a bond election on November 4th and approve all other matters and incidents related thereto.
