FROM: Maureen Callahan, Director of Curriculum and Student Learning

SUBJECT: Approve Curriculum Materials and Purchase of World Language Curriculum

According to Oregon Department of Education (ODE) instructional materials timeline the World Language content was scheduled for adoption during the 2020-2021 school year. High school World Language evaluated the state board approved list of instructional materials to determine which curriculum materials matched their program for French, Spanish, and American Sign Language. Content adoptions are a requirement under Division 22.

The following are recommended curriculum materials for French, Spanish, and American Sign Language.

| Content                | Title                                 | Publisher             |
|------------------------|---------------------------------------|-----------------------|
| French                 | Chemins French for Connected World    | Vista Higher Learning |
| Spanish 1, 2           | Autentico                             | Savvas                |
| Spanish AP             | Temas AP Spanish Language and Culture | Vista Higher Learning |
| American Sign Language | ASL at Work                           | Dawn Sign Press       |
