

Agenda Item E - Curriculum Spotlight

The Daily 5 provides the structure for teaching strategies that foster independence and stamina, and accelerate progress in reading

Authors Gail Boushey and Joan Moser are leaders in education and longtime practitioners of the methods they have developed and shared with teachers all over the world.

Advantages of the Daily 5 and CAFE system:

- Based on education, brain research, and real-life experiences
- Frequently refined to reflect best practice
- Includes tools to build independence, stamina, and accountability in students
- Provides time to teach to each student's unique abilities
- Provides a road map for creating individual student plans
