8. Board Report

- Ms. Davis recognized the Board Leadership Academy members that were attending tonight's meeting. She explained the Academy was designed for potential future Board members and how they learn the roles of a Board member. Ms. Davis also had the opportunity to sit on the Bright Academy IB Evaluation visit. Bright has not been reauthorized yet; it was a great meeting filled with data that has been collected over time. She stated Bright has a special place in her heart and she loves what they are doing with this student population. She thanked Dr. Waldrip for his vision in making sure that the district offers the best public private options for our students because that is another opportunity for our students outside of the regular system.
- Mrs. Salas attended the Frisco Area Retired School Personnel meeting this month. Comstock Elementary's Choir performed at the meeting. She stated the students were great and had everyone going with their songs and choreography. She also attended the ALC Extravaganza with the Special Education Team. This is the Active Learning Class with students across the district. They come together to participate in the Special Olympics. She stated it was an amazing to witness. She also attended the Senior Bus Tour as they visited campuses. Heart to Heart sponsored the luncheon. She recognized Lone Star Football who was competing in the State Finals on Friday.
- Mrs. Sample had the opportunity to attend the Teach and Learning in Collaboration with the Technology Team. She wanted to give a shout out to Dr. Fiori, Dr. Cunningham, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Hood. They learned about AI and what they are doing with it on campuses. She stated it was very informative. She looks forward to the next session and they will dig deeper into AI and Frisco ISD.

- Mr. Manduva had the opportunity to join as a part of the CTE Tour with the Centennial High School principal and Mr. Thompson. Many students showed interest. They had different tables that showed all the programs offered at CTE. He felt many middle school students did not realize they can also take CTE classes at their high school campuses. It was a great opportunity and stated it was nice to participate in the event.
- Mr. Hill echoed the great sentiments and stated we have a lot going on in the district this month. He stated that he attended the Navel JROTC Annual Inspection this past week at Lebanon Trail High School. The district was recognized as a distinguished unit which is very hard to do in year 2. He thought it was very well done and gave kudos to the team behind it.
Mr. Hill thanked the Board for being so active this month and he also mentioned Lone Star Football going to the State playoffs.
