Ginnings leader named Region 11 ESC Assistant Principal of the Year

The Texas Elementary Principals and Supervisors Association (TEPSA) annually recognizes exemplary assistant principals for their keen ability to provide leadership on their campus. Each of the state's twenty TEPSA regions recognizes a winner, distinguishing them among the state's elite educators.

Assistant principals are selected by education region service center and recognized for their commitment to student learning as evidenced by exceptional school leadership.

This year's winner for Region 11 is Ginnings Elementary assistant principal, Claudia Calvo-Montes. Mrs. Calvo-Montes joined Denton ISD in 2015 as an assistant principal at Borman Elementary. She's spent the last three years in the same role at Ginnings. Prior to coming to Denton ISD, Mrs. Calvo-Montes worked for 13 years in Irving ISD.

The principal of Ginnings Elementary is Cornelius Anderson.
