Teachers to target their instruction and target needs of specific students.
Desired Annual Outcome	100% compliance of campus expectations of classroom procedures, routines, and instruction. Campus administration must verbalize, set, and follow up with assurance that these expectations are being met.	Teachers using PLC meetings to help build lesson rigor and reteach the targeted gaps.	Weekly data meetings in PLC time to review upcoming TEKS and student performance on short cycle assessments.
Barriers to Address During the Year	Confusion amongst the staff as to what the expectation is for the goals and values of the campus.	Frustration with new reading curriculum. Frustration with time management of lessons. Some lessons are rushed due to lack of time. Lesson plan are not being internalized by the teacher. Lesson plans are not consistently monitored and little to no feed back from administration.	The ability to roll out data driven instruction with many new teachers who are unfamiliar with the process of data driven instruction. Amount of time for prep work for DDI.
District Commitment Theory of Action:		The district ensures access to high-quality common formative assessment resources aligned to state standard for all tested areas, as well as, providing a principal coach to support the campus principal with individual and campus growth. The principal coach (DCSI/Executive Director of Elementary Leadership) will also attend PLCs, do teacher walk-throughs, collaborate in campus planning and participate in campus data analysis. Reflection and Planning for Next 90-Day Cycle

Did you achieve your desired 90-day outcome? Why or why not?	The 90 day out comes have been met, but there are adjustments in the protocols that need to be changed. This is due to new training from Relay that campus administration is learning and new steps needing to be implemented to staff.
Did you achieve your student performance goals (see Student Data Tab)? Why or why not?	Goals not met were: 3rd grade Reading/Math and 4th Grade Writing - Reasons due to having new long term subs in Reading and Math class. Both teachers are learning the process of teaching to the level of rigor. Goals met were: 4th Reading and Math and All subject areas for 5th grade. RTI schedule has really taken off and become more focused and targeted instruction.
