7. DISTANCE LEARNING UPDATE

Fifth grade teacher Barb Brooks of North Bay Elementary shared her experiences with distance learning. She shared an example from her google classroom and photos she had taken.

Sixth grade teacher Barb Becker of North Bend Middle School had her student, Eli Harbolt, share his screen and explain the distance learning model from a student's perspective. He shared he is spending approximately 2-3 hours per day working on school work.

Chef Frank Murphy shared that for CTE classes at the high school he and other CTE teachers are creating video presentations which present useful information to students. (Examples include how to patch drywall, painting techniques, cooking demonstrations, the proper use of knives, etc.)

8. GRADUATION PLANNING UPDATE

North Bend High School Principal Darrell Johnston shared the proposed plan for graduation 2020 which will be a drive-through style ceremony on Friday, June 5th starting at 6:00 p.m. The event will be streamed in YouTube and will be carried live on the radio. Steve Greif, the voice of the Bulldogs will be announcing the names. Each graduate will be allowed one or two cars for the route which will take them through the school grounds where they will end up at the front of the high school and be presented with their diploma and a photo will be taken. District staff will line the route to cheer on and congratulate the graduates.

9. BOND POLLING UPDATE

Jeremy Wright of Wright Public Affairs and also Karina Ruiz and Elisa Warner of BRIC Architecture joined the meeting to update the Board on the polling that was conducted for a potential future bond. Mr. Wright shared that three bond package options were tested and overall the net favorability was not high – it was in the 50% range. A rough timeline shows that the district could still be on track for a May of 2021 bond ballot measure. The District's current bond will expire in 2022.

Ms. Ruiz explained that a campaign of information would need to be put together to share with the community explaining the need for a future bond.

10. BOARD COMMENTS

Board Member Spencer Gordon thanked all of the presenters at the meeting for the information and work involved.
