The Mighty Tigers Division 3 flag football team capped off their amazing undefeated season with a win in the championship game on November 14th at the Patsy Winn Sports Complex. It was an incredible accomplishment for the Mighty Tigers who began their journey back in late August with tryouts for all 5th and 6th graders. Led by head coach Frank Cardenas and assistant coaches Eddie Moreno and Alex Salinas, the Mighty Tigers showed incredible toughness and team unity all season long. 5th grader, Maximus Cardenas, led the team in touchdowns and 6th grader, Nicolas Roman, spearheaded the offense while also anchoring a strong defense. They were joined by 6th grader Liam Guerrero, who overcame an injury midseason, and 6th graders Isaac Diaz and Luis Sanchez who led the passing attack. 6th grader Eddie Moreno and 5th grader Pablo Oca anchored the offensive line while 5th graders Jesus Balandran and Ethan Salinas formed a dynamic running back corps. The defensive line was led by 5th graders Kristine Vasquez, "Longhorn" JR Gomez, and 6th grader Jesus Balandran. Congratulations to the Graves Mighty Tigers Division 3 Flag football team!
