To: Hector Mendez, Interim Superintendent

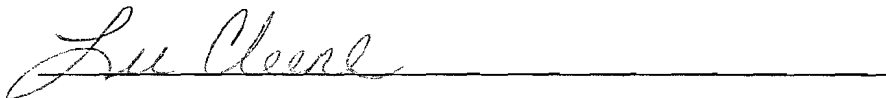

From: DCIT Professional Development/Calendar Sub-Committee

The ECISD District Continuous Improvement Team's Professional Development /Calendar Sub-Committee has worked diligently to prepare the following calendar recommendation for the 2008-2009 school year. The recommendation is based upon the State of Texas requirements for instructional and professional development days, input from parents, and feedback from Campus Continuous Improvement Teams and the Communication Council for Instructional Staff.

The undersigned present this recommendation to you with the confidence that this calendar represents the contributions of many stakeholders in the district and is an instructionally sound calendar for students.
