Evaluation Format: Elements within domains one through four will be counted individually to determine the number of elements rated exemplary, proficient, basic, and unsatisfactory.

An educators overall rating will be based on the following methodology: Exemplary: A teacher should receive an overall rating of exemplary if the teacher has received exemplary ratings in at least half of the elements, with the remaining elements rated no lower than proficient. Proficient: A teacher should receive an overall rating of proficient if the teacher received no more than one element rated basic, with the remaining elements rated proficient or exemplary. Basic: A teacher should receive an overall rating of basic if the teacher received no unsatisfactory element rating and two or more elements rated basic. Unsatisfactory: A teacher should receive an overall rating of unsatisfactory if any one element is rated unsatisfactory.

Evidence and Artifacts: A teacher must provide evidence/artifacts in order for any element to possibly be rated exemplary. Without evidence and artifacts, the highest rating a teacher can receive in each element is proficient. Providing artifacts and evidence is no guarantee of an exemplary element rating.
