Lead Time -

Due to volatility in the world economy all quoted lead times are estimated, and can change after orders are placed. Alaska Restaurant Supply, Inc. will do it's best to update customers to any extended lead time changes, but at this time, factories are operating with limited staffing, and lead time are fluctuating daily without notice being provided to the dealerships.

Pricing -

Our quotes are currently to be treated as estimates. We are unable to guarantee a 30 day period of validity as we use to due to quickly changing pricing by our factory partners. We are no longer being notified in advance of price increases. If you are using our pricing to request a loan or on bid work, please ensure your sales manager is aware.

Delivery -

Orders of equipment that have delivery as part of the quote are delivered by a third party contracted by Alaska Restaurant Supply, Inc. Deliveries are to the customers curb outside their door only.

If you require inside delivery, we can work with a moving company to assist you, however, there is an additional charge for this delivery service. If your equipment can not be unloaded with a lift gate due to size, the customer is responsible for having equipment on site that will allow for unloading of equipment. Customers that schedule a delivery, and then are not there for delivery will be required to pay a redelivery fee equal to the cost charged to ARS for the delivery attempt.

Special Orders / Parts - All special orders require prepayment and are not able to be canceled or returned once placed, even if you incorrectly order a part.

All parts orders are quoted FOB Factory, and actual freight charges are billed upon receipt. We are unable to estimate or quote freight charges in advance.
