Getting to know...

Mali Searle

Mali is LBMS's newest Education Assistant. She is an IV girl through and through, and attended all the TRSD schools in the valley. She is currently helping out with online math classes, as it is her strong subject. She is hoping to work with the 5th graders when the students return to campus. She is very excited to be working with the great staff here at Lorna Byrne. Outside of school she enjoys hiking, backpacking with her horses, and teaching her 2 daughters to ride. She's not a fan of cooking but luckily her husband is! We are glad that Mrs. Searle is part of the crew here at LBMS, and we're sure she'll be an integral part in no time!

LBMS Library Happenings

What's up LBMS folks,

I hope everyone is safe and doing the best they can these days! Just a quick heads up about book checkouts this year: TRSD is formulating a plan for students to be able to receive library books during distance learning. A couple different ideas are being worked through, and we are hoping for an early October target for checkout/delivery. Students can still take AR tests on books they have at home or get through another source. If you have any questions about reading levels, AR points on your books, or anything else, please contact me by calling the school and hitting extension 3010.

STAY SAFE!

Mr. Jensen

Cassie's Corner...

Hello LBMS Families,

I sincerely hope everyone is safe during this very stressful and challenging fall. I wanted to make sure you knew about some statewide resources that might help our students and families during these unprecedented times:

Lines for Life has recently launched a COVID-19 Emotional Support Line that is also being tapped to receive calls regarding the wildfires. Callers do not have to be in crisis to utilize this line and access supportive listening, compassion, and connection to resources. This line is 24/7 and the number is 855-238-8644 (non-800-number version is 503-575-3761)

The YouthLine is a teen-to-teen support and crisis helpline for youth. Students in your district can text, call, chat, or email with us from 4-10PM every day of the week. Visit www.oregonyouthline.org for more information. YouthLine is operational throughout the COVID-19 pandemic.

Our Student Suicide Assessment Line is available Monday-Friday, 8:30AM-4:30PM, to assist with student suicide assessments and safety planning at 503-575-3760. School staff can also call this line for consultation.

The Oregon Family Support Network has a supportive helpline available for parents of children that are experiencing mental health concerns. On this line, parents can speak with other parents that have gone through similar challenges. Find more information at www.reachoutoregon.org
