Re: School Technology Acquisition

Title I funding is geared at increasing student achievement. The aim of this purchase is to increase student achievement using 21st century technology as a tool for enhancing teaching and learning. Here in the Rock Island Milan School District #41, we remain committed to ensuring that building leaders have the opportunity to leverage their allocated Title Funds to support their individual building needs and plans. Several schools have been strategically working to replace, upgrade, and/or add technology that allows for both collaboration and interactivity within the classroom. Below lists the buildings with the respective number of Active Panels that will be purchased using 24-25 Title Funds:

School	Number of Devices	Cost
Denkman	3	$12,609.72
Longfellow	6	$25,219.44
Ridgewood	2	$8,406.48
Rock Island Academy	4	$16,812.96
Thurgood Marshall	3	$12,609.72
Washington Jr. High	11	$46,235.64
Totals:	29 devices	$121,893.96

It is recommended that the Board of Education approve the purchase of up to 29 Active Panels at up to $4,203 each from CDW-G, 75 Remittance Drive Suite 1515 Vernon Hills, Illinois 60675 at a cost not to exceed $121,894.96. Title I Funds will be utilized for this purchase.

Investment Period: July 1, 2024- August 31, 2025
Total Investment: $121,893.96
