Congratulations to EPHS Senior Edwin Pua for his SAT tutoring services he held this summer. Edwin held tutoring services at EPHS on Thursdays and Saturdays, both morning and afternoon, to approximately 15 students at every session. He assisted his classmates with different strategies and techniques pertaining to SAT Math. These sessions were at no cost to his fellow classmates. Edwin admits it was a lot of work, but it was very rewarding. He hopes he can offer this next summer as well to the student body prior to leaving for college.

Edwin has not decided where he wants to go for college but does plan to study something relating to engineering, computer science, or math. He'll see what the future holds.

Once again, congratulations to Edwin for his gift of knowledge!
