First General Session —

MAWI ASGEDOM
Mawi, Inc.

Mawi Asgedom is a refugee turned Harvard graduate who has written eight books and spoken to over one million students and educators in more than 40 states.

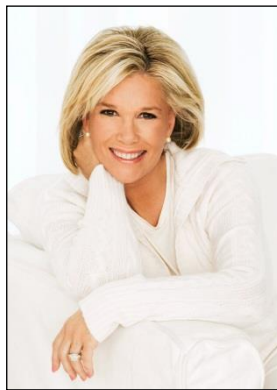

As a child, he fled civil war in Ethiopia and survived a Sudanese refugee camp for three years. After resettling in Wheaton, Illinois, he overcame poverty, language barriers, and personal tragedy to graduate from Harvard University with a degree in American history. Since then, Asgedom has also created a suite of online leadership courses and founded Mental Karate, a leadership system used to inspire students.

8:30 a.m., Sat., Nov. 19, 2016

Second General Session —

JOAN LUNDEN
Award-winning journalist and host of ALIVE with Joan

Joan Lunden greeted viewers each morning on “Good Morning America” for nearly two decades, bringing insight to the day’s top stories. She reported from 26 countries, covered five presidents and five Olympics and kept Americans up to date on how to care for their homes, their families, and themselves.

An award-winning journalist, bestselling author, motivational speaker, woman’s health and wellness advocate, and mother of seven, Lunden continues to be one of America’s most recognized and trusted personalities. She hosts ALIVE with Joan, an online channel dedicated to people living with and surviving from breast cancer and has a new book, Had I Known, which documents her treatment, life and career.

9:45 a.m., Sun., Nov. 20, 2016

Third General Session —

MICHAEL DORN
Executive Director, Safe
Havens International, Inc.

One of the nation’s most respected school safety experts, Michael Dorn has published 27 books on school safety, emergency preparedness, and law enforcement. During a 25-year public safety career, Dorn served as a university police lieutenant, school district police chief, and anti-terrorism planner and lead program manager for the Terrorism Division of the Georgia Office of Homeland Security.

A graduate of the FBI National Academy, Dorn has received advanced briefings and training in Israel by the Israel National Police, Israeli Defense Forces, and Israeli intelligence services. His work has also taken him to Central America, Mexico, Canada, Europe, Asia, Africa, and the Middle East.
