Upon approval, the district will provide synchronous remote instruction for two students. The first homebound student requires a nurse 24 hours a day. The student is immunocompromised and requires feeding through a G-tube. In addition, she has a tracheostomy, is ventilator dependent, and has chronic respiratory failure. The Homebound service will be provided by a RISD Special Education teacher. The other homebound student has a medical diagnosis of Osteogenesis Imperfecta, Bone Disease. The Homebound service will be provided by a RISD general education teacher. District-approved, grade-level curriculum in each of the four core curriculum subjects will be provided based on the frequency and duration allowed by the student's health and academic needs. Total duration will compile to equal four hours per week, as the student's unique needs and stamina allow.

*5. How will granting this waiver help achieve the district's or campus' objective?

180 of 200 characters allowed

Approval will allow 5 days of student attendance per week from the student's participation in 4 hours of remote instruction instead of the SAAH specified face-to-face instruction.
