

Texas Education Agency

APPLICATION

OPTIONAL FLEXIBLE SCHOOL DAY PROGRAM (OFSDP)

2010 – 2011 School Year

ELIGIBLE APPLICANTS: The Texas Education Agency (TEA) shall make available to eligible school districts and open enrollment charter schools an application form that must be completed and submitted to the TEA for approval.

Definition of Program Provisions

Eligible Students

A student is eligible to participate in an optional flexible school day program (OFSDP) authorized under Texas Education Code (TEC) §29.0822, if:

1. the student meets one of the following conditions:
 - the student is at risk of dropping out of school, as defined by TEC, §29.081, or
 - the student is attending a school implementing an approved innovative campus plan, or
 - the student is attending a school with an approved early college high school program designation.
 - the student, as a result of attendance requirements under the TEC, §25.092, will be denied credit for one or more classes in which the student has been enrolled.

and

2. the student, if less than 18 years of age and has not been emancipated by marriage or court order, and the student's parent, or person standing in parental relation to the student, agree in writing to the student's participation.

Assessment

The student must take the appropriate TAKS tests specified under TEC §39.023 during the regularly scheduled assessment calendar.

Participation in University Interscholastic League (UIL)

A student enrolled in an optional flexible school day program under TEC §29.0822 may only participate in a competition or other activity sanctioned or conducted under the authority of the University Interscholastic League (UIL) if they meet all UIL eligibility criteria.

Attendance Credit

A student attending an optional flexible school day program TEC §29.0822 may be counted in attendance for purposes of funding under Chapters 41, 42, and 46 of the Texas Education Code only for the actual number of contact hours the student receives, not to exceed 1,080 hours per twelve month period.

Public Hearings

The board of trustees of a school district or governing board of an open enrollment charter school shall hold a public hearing concerning the proposed application for an optional flexible school day program before applying to operate an optional flexible school day program TEC §29.0822. In addition, the board of trustees of a school district or governing board of an open enrollment charter school must hold a public hearing annually to review the performance of the optional flexible school day program. (Appendix Two).

Continuation or Revocation of Program Authorization

Applications are approved for a period of one (1) school year. Continuation of the approval for the optional flexible school day program (OFSDP) will be contingent on the demonstrated success of the program. Determination of success will include a review and analysis of data provided in the mandatory final progress report(s). The commissioner of education may revoke authorization for participation in the OFSDP after consideration of relevant factors, including performance of students participating in the program on assessment instruments required under Chapter 39, the percentage of students participating in the program who graduate from high school, and other criteria agreed to in the application and adopted by the commissioner of education. A decision to revoke approval of the program by the commissioner of education is final and may not be appealed.

Reporting Requirements

Following approval of the application, the applicant shall be required to submit progress reports based on criteria selected by the applicant and agreed to by the commissioner. Reports shall require applicants to disclose the overall progress of the students in the program, the number of students enrolled in the program (disaggregated by ethnicity, age, gender, and socioeconomic status), the number of students graduating from high school (disaggregated by ethnicity, age, gender, and socioeconomic status), and additional criteria selected by the applicant and agreed to by the commissioner. The TEA will provide notice to applicants and additional instructions for completion of reports at least 45 days prior to the date a report is due, or as soon as possible, in order to give school districts and charter schools adequate time to prepare and submit the reports to the TEA. The TEA may request additional reports as necessary to monitor and assess progress of students participating in the program.
