Student Council Report:

Student council will be lunch buddies at Primary in March. The pop tab drive is wrapping up this week and it appears as though the teachers will have collected more than students. February is Black History Month and the student council put together a bulletin board featuring notable individuals. FFA is selling flowers for Valentine's day next week, and the student council will sell candy-grams.

Superintendent Report:

We are upgrading our website over the spring and summer to meet recent ADA requirements. We are also upgrading our Skyward software which will roll out in the summer of 2026. Today a crisis simulation took place to practice our responses to help us learn ways to improve our school safety. Next week's task force will have the group discussing recommendations based on the work done over the last several months.
