

Special Programs Board Report

March 2012

Special Education:

Caseload: 125

This includes 7 students attending Life Skills classes in McMinnville.

We have one student attending an Intensive Autism classroom in Dayton.

One student is attending Lifeworks day treatment in Tigard.

Two students are attending Oregon School for the Deaf.

Charter schools students, including one in Junction City.

Seven early childhood students are attending in McMinnville, Lafayette, and Newberg.

We have 8 students transitioning from Early Childhood programs in to Kinder in the spring. In addition, we have 7 students identified through EBIS that will be tested for Special Education.

Two students from McMinnville are attending our Titan Academy classroom.

ESL: caseload

K-3: 17

4-8: 6

HS: 6

Migrant Education:

Pre-K/12: 2