Our Pledge to You

We know many issues are time sensitive. When you call Underwood, an attorney in our Public Education Law Practice will endeavor to call you back the same business day.

Continuing Education Trainings

Our Public Education Law Practice is a TEA-approved CPE provider and is also a TEA-approved provider of school board trustee training.

A long-term commitment to public education and its values...

That's why so many school districts and colleges turn to the Underwood Law Firm when they need experienced legal counsel. Our values are your values: a commitment to the highest ethical standards, a long-standing tradition of excellence, service that inspires confidence and gets results.

With offices in Amarillo, Fort Worth, Hereford, Lubbock, Pampa, Plano and Tahlequah (Okla.), Underwood brings exceptional experience in education law to school districts, junior colleges and education services centers throughout Texas.
