

Creative Courageous and United

Public Comment to the Board.

Time is now being provided for community members to communicate with the School Board. Because this is not intended as a venue to speak to the community or an audience, this part of the meeting will not be recorded or live streamed.

Live streaming will resume after Public Comment concludes.