

Lighthouse Survey Beliefs Questions

4	It is imperative that schools change dramatically in order to accelerate the learning of all students.
7	Collaboration among adults within the school district is necessary for substantial improvement of student learning.
14	Student achievement barriers, such as poverty and lack of family support, can be overcome by quality teaching.
24	Schools should allocate resources to ensure children's earliest school experiences are successful.
29	The community must be a partner with the school district in order for the school to improve student learning.
30	Local school boards can impact their school system in ways that improve student achievement.
31	If school districts want to change outcomes for students, they must improve educators' knowledge and skills.
38	Frequent monitoring of student learning is critical to improving teaching and learning.
39	High quality professional development must be a major priority for local school districts.
48	School districts must focus major attention on improving professional practices in the classroom.
49	Virtually all children can learn at high levels.
52	How well students learn in school depends on what the adults in the school do.
54	The current level of student achievement in the district is lower than we can expect.
55	In order for student learning to improve, schools must be organized and structured differently.
41	What is your best guess about the percent of students in your district that are currently achieving at or above state standard or grade level?
45	What is your best guess about the percent of the students in your school district can be expected to achieve at or above state standard or grade level?