

STUDENT REPRESENTATIVE'S MONTHLY REPORT
MARCH 19, 2015

Academics:

- New laptops and online courses offer a variety of courses that wouldn't have been able to be offered Derby
- Rigorous courses are offered
 - o AP Calc
 - o AP Psych
 - o AP US History
 - o UConn Italian
 - o Honors courses
- Teachers prepare us for important AP Tests
- Teachers ask for and consider feedback on teaching and assessment methods
- o We took online assessment and discovered that the program was marking answers wrong if you were missing a period or had one too many spaces
- Course selection completed
- CAPT Testing
- FBLA trip

Human Capital:

- Teachers are passionate about what they teach and they actually like it and relate it to real world
- Teachers are qualified to teach the subject and even more.

Operations:

- Every student has a Lenovo laptop
- Teachers integrating material with technology
 - o Online tests
 - o Books uploaded to website
 - o Able to do hw on laptops
 - o Able to take notes on laptops

Culture and Climate

- Dress code strictly enforced
- Warm, welcoming climate/community
- New Administration calls for less roaming the hallways
- School reach
- 8th grade parent night
- Prom theme chosen
- Art trip
- Read Across the Valley