Good News from the Music Department: "The PJHS and PHS Bands and Choirs were thrilled to present their Spring Concert in person on Friday, May 7. It was very well-received and felt so good to perform live! We are now looking forward to preparing for 8th Grade Promotion and HS Graduation!"

At our concert and awards banquet the following awards were presented:

BAND:

John Philip Sousa Band Award: Brock Schoonover

110% and MVP: Bri Christer

Most Improved: Sam Lehr

Rising Star: John Berns

CHOIR:

National School Choral Award and Outstanding Choir Member: Boone Elledge

Outstanding Choral Musician: John Berns

Additional Good News: Mr. McKinney was named the IBCA girls basketball coach of the year for district 18 for this past season! Congratulations!

Other recent events:

- Blood Drive held on May 4st - Flew past our goal and collected a record 101 total units of blood! These generous donations make us eligible to offer $2500 in scholarships to our graduates- these will be disseminated at Scholarship Dinner.
- The week of May 3rd we recognized our teachers each day giving them a small token of our appreciation.
- May 14th- Graduation practice was held and seniors walked through the elementary and junior high buildings in their caps and gowns. The younger students and teachers loved seeing them all grown up and ready to graduate!
- May 16th- The Scholarship Dinner was held in Commons to recognize all of our graduating seniors who have been awarded scholarships and departmental awards.

Upcoming Events:

Finals- May 19-21

Graduation is Friday, May 21st at 7:00 pm.

Summer school will run May 26th- June 16th.
