boards, and early childhood facilities going above and beyond to make a difference in the lives of their students and communities.

Who's eligible? Public school teachers, principals, school districts, school boards, and private or public early childhood education facilities are all eligible to be nominated.

What's the process? Nominees will be invited to compete an online application asking for written responses about education philosophy, learning experiences and insights on key issues facing educators today. After completing the application, educators and districts are eligible to win cash prizes and grants ranging from $5,000 to $100,000.

What do winners receive? Cash prizes and grants ranging from $5,000 to $100,000. In 2022, the H-E-B Excellence in Education Awards awarded more than $512,500 in cash prizes, gift cards and grants to finalists and winners. Since its inception in 2002, the program has awarded almost $13 million to Texas educators, schools, districts and early childhood centers.

What's the deadline? Nominations for the H-E-B Excellence in Education Awards are being accepted online through October 17, 2022 and educators can submit applications until December 5, 2022.
