

Oak Park Elementary School District 97

970 Madison ▪ Oak Park ▪ Illinois ▪ 60302 ▪ ph: 708.524.3000 ▪ fax: 708.524.3019 ▪ www.op97.org

TO: Board of Education
Dr. Al Roberts
FROM: Sheryl Marinier
SUBJECT: Donation
DATE: April 23, 2013

Judy Chrisman, a retired District 97 Teacher Librarian would like to donate a book to each of the 10 District 97 libraries, in memory of her mother, Erika Rosenthal (1914-2009) and her mother's cousin, Helga Herz (1912-2010). One of the titles, The Mangrove Tree: Planting Trees to Feed Families by Susan L. Roth and Cindy Trumbore (for K-5 schools) won the 2012 Jane Addams Peace Award for younger children and the second book, Sylvia & Aki by Winifred Conkling (for 6-8 schools) won the 2012 award for older children. The Mangrove Tree is a true story about a scientist who helped the people of Hargigo, Eritrea to plant trees that would feed them and their animals. Sylvia & Aki is based on a true story of a Mexican girl who was not allowed to enroll at the public school and Aki's family who was sent to an internment camp in California. The girls are friends to this day.

Ms. Chrisman hopes to donate books from the Jane Addams Peace Award list to the Oak park Schools annually.