Project No.: 2021.058

At 2:30 P.M., on July 6, 2021, bids were received for the 2021 Harlem High School Tennis Court Sealcoating Project. Plans and Specifications were distributed to potential bidders, one bid was received. Of the bids received, the lowest responsible bidder was American Sealcoating, which submitted the apparent low base bid of $61,400. Enclosed is a copy of the bid tabulation for your review.

American Sealcoating verified their bid as being complete as submitted and meets the requirements in the Specifications. DLA Architects therefore recommends awarding the contract to American Sealcoating for the base bid amount for a total contract price of $61,400.
