
Compulsory Attendance

Except when exempt by Oregon law, all children between ages 6 and 18 who have not completed the 12th grade are required to regularly attend a public, full-time school. All children age 5 and who have been enrolled in a public school are required to attend regularly while enrolled in the public school.

Persons having ~~legal~~ control of a student who is at least five years of age and ~~who~~ has enrolled in a public school are required to send ~~have~~ the student to school ~~attend~~ and maintain the child in regular attendance during the entire school term.

The building principal or designee shall monitor and report any violation of the compulsory attendance law to the superintendent or designee.

~~The district will develop procedures for issuing a citation.~~

A parent who is not supervising their child by requiring school attendance may also be in violation of Oregon Revised Statute (ORS) 163.577(1)(c). Failing to supervise a child is a Class A violation.
