To whom it may concern,

At the beginning of the 2018 school year, I started my second term of masters classes enrolling in six classes for a total of 18 credits per semester . Taking on such a heavy workload requires a lot of my spare time, usually between 15 to 30 hours a week on top of my 40 hour a week job. My wife Kylie and I also found out that we are expecting our second child in the coming months. Between my masters classes, family life, and with lots of thought and consideration I am regretfully resigning as Assistant Wrestling Coach for Browning High School. This decision was not easy want to make, especially with how supportive, open, and welcoming all the coaching staff and administration has been with me through the 2017/2018 wrestling season. I want to thank Casey and Marlon especially for allowing me to be part of such an amazing wrestling season.

Thank you,

Egan Black
