Subject

Counseling

Background Information

The Weatherford ISD Counseling Department provides comprehensive, data-driven services to support the academic, social-emotional, and postsecondary success of all students. Counselors across all grade levels work collaboratively to implement a developmental guidance program that aligns with the Texas Model for Comprehensive School Counseling Programs.

This presentation will provide an overview of current counseling initiatives and their impact on student outcomes. Topics will include academic planning and advisement, social-emotional learning supports, college and career readiness activities, and parent engagement efforts such as the Parent Café in partnership with Cook Children's. In addition, the department will share updates on early college and P-TECH counseling supports, district-wide implementation of Xello for college and career exploration, and ongoing professional learning for counselors.
