WHEREAS, pursuant to Education Code 29.9091(c), a district offering a local remote learning program may provide a virtual course through remote synchronous instruction, asynchronous instruction, or a combination of synchronous and asynchronous instruction, and proposed amendments to the Student Attendance Accounting Handbook provided that a board-approved local policy determines which instructional methods and attendance-taking methods the district will use; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Education Code 25.092, a district may adopt a policy to exempt students from the minimum attendance requirements for class credit or a final grade for one or more courses offered under a remote learning program provided under Education Code 29.9091.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Trustees of Denton Independent School District through this resolution, which has the effect of board-adopted policy, approves the following provisions:

The Board authorizes the District to operate a local remote learning program as permitted by law and employ the following instructional and attendance-taking methods in providing its remote learning program:

- A combination of remote synchronous and asynchronous instruction, with daily attendance for synchronous instruction taken at 9:30 a.m. for elementary students and at the beginning of the 3rd period for middle school students until such time as the K-8 Virtual Academy receives a unique campus code from TEA, after which time daily attendance for all synchronous instruction will be taken at 10:15 a.m., and attendance for asynchronous instruction is determined through a daily attendance measure as described in the District's asynchronous instructional plan.

An eligible student participating in the District's local remote learning program is exempt from the requirements of Education Code 25.092 regarding minimum attendance for award or credit or a final grade and the application of policy FEC(LOCAL) for the courses offered in the remote learning program.

The authority granted by this resolution shall apply for the 2021–22 school year, unless the Board takes further action.
