Re: Superintendents Board Report

Education Updates

- The Idaho Legislature has released its latest iteration of the new funding formula. I will be attending the first hearing on the proposed legislation at the Capitol on Thursday, February 7th. At this point the perception is that it is somewhat of a draft and there will be changes but there is political will to make this bill become a reality. Time will tell.
- Christine Ketterling was asked to join the director of Teach for America in Idaho in presenting to the House Education Committee at the Idaho Legislature. The presentation took place Monday, February 4th. As a district we were very well represented by Christine's remarks.
