Re: Superintendents Board Report

Updates

- Our staff has done a great job navigating the current situation. Certified staff as well as classified staff have worked hard to cover for each other as we've strived to keep the doors open and school continuing.
- I helped lead training this week for some of Idaho's new superintendents. There are many new superintendents in Idaho. I can't imagine being a new superintendent during these times.
- The future of ADA versus Enrollment for funding purposes is yet to be determined. The State Board is cautious to wade, once again, into the legislative arena by taking on this issue but it's still a possibility. Stay tuned.
