

General Supervision Grant Outcomes 24-25

Priority Area: Educational Environments

Educational Environments of students eligible as autism spectrum disorder (ASD) continues to be the Priority Area for the General Supervision Grant. The data shown below tracks progress Kalamazoo county has made over the last 4 years. Using TEACCH and other structured teaching methodologies districts have increased the number of students with ASD eligibility participating in the general education classroom.

General Supervision Grant Outcomes 24-25

Professional Development

During the 24-25 school year, 34 training sessions were provided and 214 teachers received coaching following these professional development sessions. This work impacted students in 42 separate buildings throughout the county.