

INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 832
STUDENT OVERNIGHT FIELD TRIP FORM

Title of Group: High School Yearbook Editors

Title of Activity: Yearbook

Trip Dates: April 16th – 18th, 2020

Number of Students: 8-10

Chaperones: 2

Purpose of Trip: This is a convention of school student journalists and advisors with more than 4,000 attendees sponsored by the Journalism Education Association and the National Scholastic Press Association. They partner to prepare hundreds of practical and professional learning sessions, from high profile keynote to specific, problem-solving breakouts and hands on workshops. Our students will have the opportunity to deepen their knowledge and experience as well as gain valuable feedback about our book from numerous professionals.

Trip Itinerary: To be determined based on approval. Itinerary will be determined based off of flight times available.See attached for Convention Schedule from last year in Anaheim.

How it is funded: Families pay for the trip. Yearbook does fundraising activities early in the year that can become available to offset some of the costs such as hotels and transportation at the convention.

Transportation: Parents will transport students to the airport. We will be flying to Anaheim. Once there, we will be traveling via a rental van for the group.

How students and families know about the code of conduct, etc: How students and families know about code of conduct, etc.: A parent and student meeting is conducted prior to the trip. Both parents and students sign a behavior contract.

Signatures:

Trip Advisor/Coach: Craig Mickelson

Activities Director:

Principal Kacie Muller