CC Winn High School would like to recognize two of its students for receiving the Hispanic Heritage Foundation Scholarship. We would like to have this done at the January Board meeting.

CC Winn High School is proud to announce its 17th Hispanic Heritage Youth Award Recipient. CC Winn has been working this scholarship since the inception of its College Advising program. This year we had one recipient in Dallas and one in Houston.

Juan Omar De Hoyos was the Silver recipient in the Innovation and Technology category in Dallas. Award ceremony took place at Southern Methodist University.

Jose Sanchez was the Silver recipient in the Innovation and Technology category in Houston. Award ceremony took place at Rice University.

Entering its 16th year, the Youth Awards honor Latino high school seniors who excel in the classroom and community and for their focus in various categories including: Business & Entrepreneurship (Presented by BBVA Compass), Community Service (Presented by Colgate-Palmolive), Education (Presented by Southwest Airlines, Official Airline of the Youth Awards), Engineering & Mathematics (Presented by ExxonMobil), Healthcare (Presented by CVS Caremark Workforce Initiatives), Innovation & Technology (Presented by Entertainment Software Association), and Sports & Fitness (Presented by NASCAR). Additionally, the Hispanic Heritage Innovative Educator Award is presented by Association of Latino Administrators & Superintendents and sponsored by Qlovi. Three awards for each student category and one Innovative Educator Award are given in each of ten regions across the country (see below for details). The National Youth Awards will take place for the first time in San Juan, Puerto Rico. One Regional Award winning student from each category and one Innovative Educator will be selected as the National Youth Award recipient in his or her respective category.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT – JOSE ANTONIO TIJERINO

We are thrilled to honor yet another class of outstanding young Latino leaders who will certainly make an impact on our communities and workforce as they move forward in their careers. We also applaud the vision of our sponsors as they share our focus in what we consider priority fields for America. We believe these are the young leaders of today, not tomorrow. Frankly, we can't afford to wait. As the fastest growing segment of the population it is important we meet America's priorities in education, community and workforce. Beyond celebrating the young leaders, they are funneled into our 'leadership cycle' which will put them on a fast track for leadership in the classroom, community and workforce. But it starts with the Youth Awardees who embody the promising future of America.

HISPANIC HERITAGE YOUTH AWARDS:

For 16 years, the Youth Awards have honored Latino high school rising-seniors, in at least 10 regions, who have excelled in the classroom and community, and for their focus in various categories including Science, Technology, Engineering and Math, Healthcare, Education, Business and Finance. The average GPA for the Youth Awardees is above a 3.75. The students receive educational grants to continue on to their college careers. After the regional awards, one student is selected as a national recipient in each of the categories and celebrated at the National Youth Awards ceremony. The Youth Awards program is the beginning of the HHF pipeline and identifies and vets the young leaders who are funneled into the Leadership Cycle as they transition from high school, to college and grad school, and into their careers.

Youth Awards Regions include: Atlanta, Chicago, Dallas, Houston, Los Angeles, Miami, New York/Philadelphia/New Jersey, Phoenix, San Jose/San Francisco-Bay Area, Washington, DC

HISPANIC HERITAGE FOUNDATION MISSION:

Established by The White House in 1987, the Hispanic Heritage Foundation (HHF) is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization. HHF's award-winning mission is to inspire, prepare, and position Latino leaders in the classroom, community, and workforce to meet America's priorities. HHF also promotes Latino cultural pride, accomplishment, and the great promise of the community through public awareness campaigns seen by millions.
