Detail

The Texas Election Code, Sec. 67.003(b) Time of Local Canvass provides that each local canvassing authority shall convene to conduct the local canvass at the time set by the canvassing authority's presiding officer and not later than the 11th day after election day and not earlier than the later of: (1) the third day after election day; (2) the date on which the early voting ballot board has verified and counted all provisional ballots, if a provisional ballot has been cast in the election; or (3) the date on which all timely received ballots cast from addresses outside of the United States are counted, if a ballot to be voted by mail in the election was provided to a person outside of the United States.

The Early Voting Ballot Board for Chambers County met on Election Day, May 3, 2025, to qualify and/or count Early Voted Mail Ballots, and to certify the Tally Report Results produced from the Verity Controllers used during Early Voting and Election Day in Chambers County. Harris County conducted all aspects of the Lee College District General Election held May 3, 2025, within Harris County and has submitted the official results of said election. At the Lee College District Board of Regents canvass, the total number of voters casting a ballot, the total number of votes cast, and total number of votes cast per candidate for both Harris and Chambers counties shall be read. Upon completion of the canvass, the presiding officer shall note the time of completion of the canvass for the record.
