RE: Common Assessment Packet and Schedule

DATE: September 12, 2017

Attached is the 2017-2018 Common Assessment Schedule as well as information about assessments and how they are used within the district. The packet contains the following components: common assessment system description, assessment data and beliefs, assessment overview, assessment descriptions, and the assessment schedule.

These assessment documents were shared with staff during the August Institute Days, posted on our websites, and placed in each schools the digital back. Subsequently these were also shared with parents via principal communication.

Please let me know if you need additional information.
