

BYLAWS OF THE AMERICAN INDIAN PARENT ADVISORY COMMITTEE

An Indian Education Program for ISD 363 Rainy River School District

Mission Statement

To build meaningful relationships through family and student engagement within our school and community, while also improving Native student achievement, retention and graduation rates through culturally responsive instruction, support in traditions, and respect for values and beliefs.

Title VI Indian Education

The Indian Education program was created in accordance with the Indian Education Act of 1972. The Act was in recognition of the unique educational needs of American Indian students in the United States. The Act provides financial assistance to the Title VI Indian Education program to meet the distinct educational and culturally related academic needs of American Indian students in the public elementary and secondary schools.

SEC. 7102 Purpose

(a) Purpose – It is the purpose of this part to support the efforts of local educational agencies, Indian Tribes and organizations, postsecondary institutions, and other entities to meet the unique educational and culturally related academic needs of American Indian and Alaska Native students, so that such students can meet the same challenging Minnesota State student academic achievement standards as all other students are expected to meet.

(b) Programs – This part carries out the purpose described in subsection

(c) by authorizing programs of direct assistance for –

- i. Meeting the unique educational and culturally related academic needs of American Indians and Alaska Natives;
- ii. The education of Indian children and adults;
- iii. The training of Indian persons as educators and counselors, and in other professions serving Indian people, and;
- iv. Research, evaluation, data collection, and technical assistance.

SEC. 7111 Purpose

It is the purpose of this subpart to support local educational agencies in their efforts to reform elementary and secondary school programs that serve Indian students in order to ensure that such programs:

- (a) are based on challenging State and academic content and student academic achievement standards that are used for all students; and
- (b) are designed to assist Indian students in meeting those standards.

ARTICLE I – Name of Committee

The name of the committee shall be the American Indian Parent Advisory Committee of Northome, Minnesota (AIPAC). The AIPAC derives its authority from the Indian Education Act of 1972. The Act provides financial assistance to the Title VI Program. Every act of the Committee shall conform to the status and regulations used set by the federal regulations.

ARTICLE II – Duties and Limitations of AIPAC

Section 1. Duties: The Native Community has duly elected the AIPAC and given the AIPAC responsibility to participate fully in the planning, development, implementation and evaluation of all the services and activities provided by the project. In addition, the AIPAC will:

1. Work with the Indian Education Coordinator to determine the culturally-related academic needs and the general educational needs of American Indian students within the district;
2. Monitor and evaluate the ongoing progress of the project towards meeting established goals and objectives and recommend appropriate action to the program staff;
3. Meet with the Indian Education director, program staff, and district superintendent on a regular basis to review the project needs, progress report and discuss district services for the Indian community;
4. Delegates the duty of consulting on cultural enrichment activities and events for Northome Indian Education.
5. Act as a forum in which to discuss community issues, needs and recommendations related to the district educational program;
6. Review, amend and approve parent committee bylaws on an annual basis;

7. The committee will assist in program development and review budget and financial reports and analyses to determine the grant funds are being used to supplement and not supplant the level of funds available to the community for the education of Native students.

Section 2. Limitations: The AIPAC shall have no power to bind any member of the school district to any debt, without an express written authorization from the school district;

(a) No member of the AIPAC shall be required to provide any sum of money (i.e. membership fees, dues, etc.) or property to the AIPAC;

(b) The AIPAC shall not pay any member for carrying out the delineated responsibilities in the bylaws;

(c) The committee shall have no powers other than those specified herein.

(d) Members will avoid any appearance of a conflict of interest by abstaining from voting on any project matter, which may benefit their immediate family more than the rest of the project population.

(e) AIPAC members shall not work for the Title VI Project.

ARTICLE III – Committee Structure Section
