High School Connections

Kindergarten students recently had the opportunity to interact with Mrs. Adams' parenting class. On November 24th kindergarten classes traveled to the high school. High school students helped the younger students decorate a vest with Native American symbols. On December 1, the parenting class students came to the elementary and assisted kindergarten students in decorating a paper Christmas tree and creating a card for their family.

Mrs. Hopkins arranged a special activity with FBLA members and first grade students. Members of FBLA read a gingerbread man story to first graders and helped them decorate a gingerbread man cookie. Cookies were provided by the FBLA.
