The Whole Student

- Hatchet Pride Work
 - Scheduling a work session to review SAEBRS data with the Hatchet Pride (PBIS) coaches.
 - The coaches along with the committee are reviewing the school behavior data as it relates to social emotional learning. As a result, they have been designing school-wide activities that have taken place during Resource Hour on our newly created Hatchet Pride Wednesdays. The first activity was focused on relationship building and how perceptions color the way we deliver and receive communication.
 - Reviewed and revalidated the Tier 2 intervention criteria in order to identify specific student and staff connections in order to provide the check and connection.
 - The committee has been reviewing our building-wide Hatchet Pride behavioral expectation matrix through the lens of creating a positive school and classroom climate with the philosophy that this directly impacts data points such as our strong attendance rate. Coaches are meeting regularly with new staff for specific training and discussion around this concept.
