My Project

I love each and everyone of my amazing students. They are each so bright and talented in their own way. With your generous donations I am striving to make them great readers and leaders for our future. These books will motivate my students and help them explore the beautiful gift of reading . I want these students to be able to have a variety of books they can choose from to meet their various needs and interests. This project will, in the future, help fill up our book vending machine that I also hope to get for the entire school.
