THE HORNET WAY...

Be Safe

Be Respectful

Be Responsible

Be Kind

Are you planning a family trip for the holidays? As you think about your arrangements, we want to stress the importance of sending your child to school every day possible. Every year, absences spike in the weeks before and after the winter holiday as families squeeze in a few more vacation days. It's time to break that cycle. We know that just a few missed days here and there, even if they're excused absences, can add up to too much lost learning time and put your child behind in school. This is as true in kindergarten as it is in high school.

We recognize that holidays are an important time for reconnecting with families far away. The costs of plane tickets often influence when you want to travel. But keep in mind the costs to your children's education if they miss too much school— and the message you will be sending about the importance of attendance. Even if you've got a homework packet from the teacher, it doesn't make up for the interaction and learning that happens in the classroom. Our teachers will be teaching, and our students will be learning, right up until vacation starts and the first day back. This holiday season, give your children the gift of an education and the habit of attendance.

Are you a family in transition in need of some assistance, especially during this holiday season? We would love to help!

Eligible Living Situations:

- Shelter or Transitional Housing
- Unsheltered: vehicle, substandard housing, camping
- Doubled-Up: sharing housing of relatives, friends due to hardship
- Hotel/Motel: for lack of alternatives (voucher stays are "Sheltered")

We can help you get set up with community supports. Contact our Family Advocate, Krystal Graham for more info.
